Baldwin Park to Host Traditional Posada on December 15

BALDWIN PARK, CA – Join Baldwin Park in celebrating a traditional Posada on Friday, December 15! The night will begin at 6:30 p.m. with mass at St. John the Baptist Catholic Church, followed by a procession to Cesar E. Chavez Amphitheater in Morgan Park. Festivities will then kick off at 8 p.m. at Morgan Park, where attendees can enjoy live entertainment, traditional Posada candy bags, a free petting zoo and a piñata raffle.

“It is wonderful to see the Baldwin Park community gather during this time of year to embrace the values of traditional events like the Posada,” said Baldwin Park Mayor Emmanuel J. Estrada. “At its core, Posada is about lending a hand to those in need and coming together as a community to support one another. I look forward to seeing Baldwin Park residents of all ages at this special event.”

At the Amphitheater, a church choir will recreate the nativity scene and sing traditional posada songs, followed by a live performance by Mariachi Los Gallitos Del Sur. Free tamales, buñuelos and punch (ponche) will be available following the festivities. There will also be a free petting zoo for all ages.

Attendees that are not participating in mass are encouraged to meet at Cesar E. Chavez Amphitheater for the celebration at 8 p.m.
