OVER 750 FLOCKED TO THE CITY OF BALDWIN PARK JOB FAIR LOOKING FOR WORK

BALDWIN PARK, Calif. (March 21, 2019) – On March 21, 2019 from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. the City of Baldwin Park held its annual job fair attracting over 750 eager job seekers. Rain did not deter a healthy crowd who stood in line and braved the elements to attend today's successful event. Participants were then exposed to resume building, on-site interviews and tips for landing their ideal job.

Mayor Manny Lozano stated, “ Our City Council knows that many of our residents are looking for high paying quality employment and we are honored to have facilitated this opportunity. Job growth continues to thrive in the fields of health, construction and hospitality and we hope to connect our residents with solid employment.”

One of the largest employers in Baldwin Park, Kaiser Permanente, was present at today's job pavilion. Rita Reyes, Kaiser Permanente's Recruitment Consultant had this to say: “Kaiser is really big on partnering with the community. Having a presence here allows us to reach out and hire local residents. It is our way of giving back.”

The City worked overtime in attracting potential employers including, Kaiser Permanente, U.S. Census and Fed Ex. “Today we had over 44 employers who provided informational booths and on-site interviews.” said Victor Viramontes, Management Analyst, Community and Economic Development Department.
