Baldwin Park Gears Up for an Electrifying Boxing Showdown

BALDWIN PARK, CA –Get ready for an adrenaline-pumping afternoon as Baldwin Park hosts its much-anticipated boxing competition this Sunday, Sept. 21, at 1 p.m. at the Esther Snyder Community Center (4100 Baldwin Park Blvd.). The venue will be transformed into a high-energy arena showcasing local boxing talent, fierce competition and community spirit.

“Our community is thrilled to host this event, which will undoubtedly be an inspiring display of athleticism, grit and friendly competition,” said Baldwin Park Mayor Alejandra Avila. “We’re proud to host events like this that bring families and neighbors together for safe, exciting and memorable experiences right here in our community.”

Boxer weigh-ins begin at 9 a.m. and doors open to the public at noon. Please note that seating is general admission, so attendees are encouraged to arrive early to claim the best spots to witness all the action ringside.

This family-friendly event promises hard-hitting excitement for all ages, with 20 amateur boxing bouts featuring hometown heroes from Baldwin Park as well as competitors from the counties of Los Angeles, Orange, San Bernardino, Riverside and Ventura. Admission at the door is free for children aged five and under, $5 for ages six to 12 and $20 for those aged 13 and up. Food and refreshments will be available throughout the event.

For any questions or for more information, please contact the Baldwin Park Recreation and Community Services Department at (626) 813-5245, Ext. 311. We hope to see you there!
